America has become one of the most heavily legislated nations on the planet. In what has become the Nanny State, Americans are now told how to drive, eat, drink, sleep and even have sexual relations. Through force and the use of engineered crisis, Americans have been bullied into obedience through enforced laws and by being coaxed into begging the government to intervene in everyday affairs by the creation of engineered crisis and false flag incidents.

From the G.W. Bush administration to the Obama administration, from the Patriot Act to the Obama Care bill, the new federal hate crimes law, new and ever reaching powers granted to the EPA, FDA and more, the United States is being oppressed by legislation. With the expansion of new legislation comes more Americans that are guilty who were not guilty before the laws were passed. This is the criminalization of America.

Economic Collapse 1984 Redux (http://www.examiner.com/video/economic-collapse-1984-redux)

Perhaps the FDA raids on Amish Quakers who were selling whole farm fresh milk are another example of the criminalization of America. The FDA led raid times two on Rawsome Foods for producing Milk without a license. More and more across the US farmers and everyday citizens alike are being criminalized and legally processed for growing their own food and having gardens. People are now prohibited from making sand castles in Florida and for voicing their opinion online.

Most recently American teens were subject to the long arm of the law when they were busted shooting at an Obama T-Shirt. The youths posted the information on their Facebook page and before they knew it were being forced to a face to face with the Secret Service. Even more recent a Miami man was arrested and taken into custody for voicing his immense dislike for Obama as Obama visited Miami. Secret Service and other federal officials flooded the man's street and invaded his home as he was deemed a threat to the "Commander in Chief". So now Americans are detained and punished for what they will do or may do.

It is no coincidence that there are an ever increasing number of TSA and US military checkpoints along highways in the name of DWI stops and terrorism. This is the indoctrination of America to accept the police state. The biggest complaint that Marxists have about Marxism is that it has never been done "right". Much like the frog in the pot full of slowly boiling water; America is slowly being inoculated to tyranny. Little by little Americans are accepting their criminalization. The recent federal government assisted road blocks are just the government's way of showing America that they are the wardens of this prison.

The United States Government has always had a way of marginalizing specific groups in order to "promote" national security. During Lincoln's time anyone who opposed the Union or the Civil War was interned. Abraham Lincoln suspended the Constitution and interned more than 40,000 American citizens. During World War Two, over 100,000 Japanese, Japanese Americans and some second and third generation Americans of Japanese descent were interned at various government camps across the west and mid west of the United States.

April 7, 2009 The Department of Homeland Security published a report on Rightwing Extremism in the US. This report labeled millions of Americans as potential domestic terrorists. At approximately the same time the MIAC Reports were released, calling for local law enforcement officials to marginalize and exploit anyone who displayed conservative, constitutionalist or anti left wing political ideology.

What should have Americans alarmed is the passage of HR 645. This bill, now law provided for the development and funding for Camps much like those used in the World War Two internment of Japanese Americans and American Japanese all across the US. In 2009 immediately after the submission of the bill into Congress the US Army National Guard went into a recruiting frenzy for Internment and Relocation Camp Specialists.

This only causes one to ask, why the government would marginalize its citizens and spend so much money developing internment and relocation camps. To find this answer one must go back to 2008 during a pending full economic collapse under George W. Bush that a controversial closed session of the house convened, where members of congress were forced into approving the stimulus bill, "in order to prevent a complete collapse". This meeting was also the catalyst for the creation of the US military's "Civil Unrest" units under US Northcom. The first unit came from the US Army's 3rd Infantry Division. Civil Unrest was now a major threat to the United States Government.

This move to dedicate a force for civil unrest in the US was a great advance into what was developed in the 1960s and is known today as "Operation Garden Plot". Operation Garden Plot is the original government plan for Continuity of government in the event of an epic event such as economic collapse or other national disaster. The Continuity of Government plan includes suspension of the Constitution and the implementation of Martial Law. George W. Bush has expounded on this with the passing of the Military Commissions Act of 2006. Patriot Act and Executive Order 51.

Barack Obama continued along the line of tyranny with the formation of the counsel of governors. The counsel of governors is the division of the United States into 10 regions controlled by FEMA and overseen by 10 separate governors handpicked and appointed by Barack Obama himself. When one examines the behavior of the government build up and crackdown on liberty and the formation of a police state, they find that the reason is for nothing more than control. It appears that the US government and the elite are in fear that they will lose control in the event of an epic event and are thus preparing accordingly.

In the event of economic collapse the American people would more than likely run rampant and demand answers from the government whose purpose is to protect the public. This is the same government that is ushering in the economic collapse in order to appease the global elite and to also usher in a "New World Order". It is quite clear that the government's efforts in the criminalization of America are because of their guilty conscience. The fact that the politicians and the elite have been raping America for over a century and they know it means that they have also been preparing for the day that Americans will be upset enough to try to take back control.
